

Government Hears Big Scheme To Link P.G.E. And Alberta Railways

North Shore Delegation Promises $35,000,000 in British Capital to Finance Company Which Would Take Over Both Provincial Systems and Start Vast Colonization Scheme; MacLean Outlines Government Conditions and Agrees to Consider Project

British Columbia was asked by a North Vancouver delegation which met the cabinet this morning, to embark on a gigantic railway building scheme with the extension of the Pacific Great Eastern Railway from North Vancouver to the boundary of Alberta to join the Edmonton, Dunsmuir & B.C. Railway.

To carry out this proposal the delegation proposed the formation of a $35,000,000 company, backed by $35,000,000 to be invested by British capitalists. This company would take over the entire debt of the P.G.E. and the Alberta Government line would pay for the cost of the railway extension through the $35,000,000 received from British Columbia. British Columbia would hold $40,000,000 worth of stock in the new company, and Alberta $30,000,000. The board of directors would include three representatives of British Columbia, two of Alberta, and two of the shareholders.

Linked with railway building the company would undertake a vast colonization scheme, to finance which it would seek a grant of $10,000,000 from the Federal Government.

These proposals were laid before Premier MacLean and his colleagues by Alex Philip of North Vancouver, and a delegation headed by J. M. Bryan, M.P.P. for North Vancouver, and A. M. Munn, M.P.P. for Lillooet. Municipal and other public bodies of the North Shore were fully represented in the delegation.

OUTLINES CONDITIONS
After listening to the proposals advanced by the delegation, the Premier outlined in brief the conditions which his Government would be willing to talk business. In the first place, he said, any company taking over the P.G.E. must agree to extend it into the Peace River country. Secondly, the financial soundness of the British capitalists backing the project must be established. Thirdly, the continued operation of the railway must be absolutely guaranteed. The Premier promised consideration of the scheme laid before the cabinet, but added that much ground had to be covered yet before the project could be entertained as a definite proposition. The co-operation of the Federal and Alberta Governments, he pointed out, had to be arranged before the scheme could be pulled complete.

GUNMEN DISTURB LABOR OF CHICAGO, POLICE DECLARE Terrorists Have Adopted Plan of Disabling Their Victims For Life

Chicago, Nov. 21.—A terrorism as barbaric as the catalogue of crime-terrorists that commits mayhem, disabling its victims for life, has been uncovered in a police investigation of wildcat racketeering here. Underworld hoodlums, grown lean in the cramped and crowded fields of bootlegging, rum-running and gambling, has turned in some instances which the police have found to the more lucrative sport of "wild-cat" organization into unions of small tradesmen, itinerant dealers and others.

TARIFF BOARD HEARS REQUEST OF COLLEGE

Duty on Gramophone Records Used in Teaching French Is Opposed

Ottawa, Nov. 21.—Upper Canada College, Toronto, is teaching French by gramophone and thereby hangs an application to the Tariff Board in the old days when students learned French by conjugating 's'en aller interrogatively and French was as dead as Latin, the student could not acquire an accent by winding up a spring. But times have changed. Wm. L. Grant, principal of Upper Canada College, has written to the Tariff Board pointing out that while other educational supplies come in free, a duty has to be paid on records used for teaching French.

"I would suggest," he says, "that the employment of new methods in Canadian education would be encouraged if all records solely used by authorized institutions for educational purposes should be admitted on the filling up of the proper forms by the proper authorities, or that at least records specially designed for educational purposes might be so admitted."

B.C. MISSIONARY BACK FROM CHINA

Dr. F. M. Auld of Nelson Returned Aboard President McKinley

Canadian missionaries who left their posts in China during the disturbances in the Spring of this year are returning to their work in other missions, where there is not such great ill-feeling, according to Dr. F. M. Auld of the United Church of Canada, who was a passenger aboard the American Mail liner President McKinley, arriving here this morning en route to his home in Nelson.

Dr. Auld, who was accompanied by the Rev. J. D. MacRae, will first go to Toronto, returning to his home later.

Conditions, as far as missions are concerned, are settling down now in South China, Dr. Auld stated. In North China, where Chang Tso Lin is holding his own against the nationalists, the situation has been unsettled lately, he added, schools, hospitals and residences having been entered and looted by troops of Feng Yu Hsiang.

There are about two-thirds of the number of Canadian missionaries who were in China before the disturbances this year, remaining, Dr. Auld said. A few of these are interestingly scattered at various points where there is still opportunity for mission work.

EARTH SHOCKS FELT IN MEXICO

Nogales, Arizona, Nov. 21.—A semi-official dispatch to The Nogales Herald last night from Mexico City reported the seismograph at Tacubaya registered earthquake shocks yesterday. The centre of the tremors, placed at 1,620 kilometres from Mexico City, was believed to have been in Central America. The shocks lasted fifty-one minutes six seconds.

A light earthquake shock which caused great alarm but no material damage was reported from Brasos City, in the State of Guerrero, on the west coast of Mexico.

Thanksgiving was first celebrated in America in 1621.

Members of the delegation declared they could fulfill all the conditions laid down by the Premier and indicated that they would go to Edmonton shortly to seek the assistance of the Alberta authorities.

WESTERN OUTLET

Mr. Philip stressed the importance of a western outlet for the Peace River country as against an eastern outlet. Engineers employed by the Federal Government had estimated that this outlet by an extension of the P.G.E. northward would cost $21,690,000 but Mr. Philip was confident the work could be done for less.

To carry out the scheme, he explained, it was proposed to incorporate a company with capitalization of $12,000,000 to take over the P.G.E. and the Edmonton and Dunvegan line. In this company the B.C. Government would receive stock to the amount of $40,000,000 and in return would hand over the P.G.E., the new company assuming the line's entire indebtedness. The stock in the new company would secure B.C. for its unsecured railway debt while the remaining debt of $32,000,000 was secured already by the large land grants set aside for the P.G.E. line by the Legislature.

The new company would receive $32,000,000 in stock on account of its railway, which the province was ready to sell for $23,000,000 but which had cost $42,000,000.

The cost of the proposed extension was placed at $30,000,000 with $5,000,000 for contingencies and this money would be secured from British capitalists who were behind the scheme, Mr. Philip said.

The Federal Government would be asked for $10,000,000 to cover a big colonization programme to provide traffic for the railway.

Details of prospective revenue were submitted by Mr. Philip, who believed that in five years the interprovincial line would make a profit of over $5,000,000 a year or about 4½ per cent on its total investment.

If Alberta rejected the scheme British Columbia could go ahead with it alone successfully, the Government was told. The board of directors of the new railway would consist of three representatives of B.C., two of Alberta and two representing the shareholders, Mr. Philip said.

After questioning the delegation closely on the question of continual operation of the line the Premier said he agreed that it was necessary to extend the P.G.E. into the Peace River country to make it a success. Any group taking over the Government line must undertake its northward extension, he said, and secondly must absolutely guarantee continuous operation. The lack of such a guarantee appeared to be a weakness in the present scheme, he said.

PROMISES GUARANTEES

Mr. Mahon replied that the promoters would give satisfactory guarantees and would be able to show the financial soundness of the British capitalist interested.

When Mr. Philip asked whether the Government would agree to lay the plan before the Legislature at its next session the Premier said this would have to be considered carefully before any decision could be made.

"If they can get the co-operation of Alberta, and the Federal Government and show the soundness of their backing we would be willing to do business," said Mr. Pattullo. The Premier agreed with this suggestion.

The Premier concluded the interview by declaring that the Government would give consideration to any reasonable proposal and declared the Cabinet would carefully consider the entire scheme as laid before it.

GRAIN FLOW TO COAST WILL SET RECORD

business effect a great saving to the Western farmer, not only in labor but especially in time, as with the combine there is now only one operation in cutting and threshing, and the grain does not stay out in the fields for days after being cut, getting wet.

"In Alberta this harvest season there were 6,500 trucks hauling grain to the elevators. These trucks not only carried two or three wagon loads each, but they transported the grain five times as fast. The result is this fall we have broken all records for marketing and moving grain. In one period of twenty-four hours we marketed 5,000,000 bushels of grain, or 2,266 cars—the biggest day in the history of Western Canada.

NOTHING FOR COAST

"Of course this means a big thing to the Pacific Coast. The last peak of the grain movement through Vancouver was in 1923, when 55,000,000 bushels were handled. But this year, provided that there are vessel bottoms to handle the grain, as the elevator capacity at Vancouver is 7,500,000 bushels, we estimate that 60,000,000 bushels will flow through Vancouver."

Although this is Mr. Neal's first official visit as western general manager to the Coast, he knows this territory intimately as for six years following 1904 he served it as an official in the C.P.R. freight department. Mr. Neal's rise in the railway world has been notable. For two and one-half years during the war he was on the Canadian Railway War Board. At the end of the war he returned to the C.P.R. Before his recent appointment to succeed Charles Murphy, Mr. Neal was assistant to the vice-president at Montreal.

Mr. Murphy, it is understood, will move from Winnipeg to Vancouver, where his daughter lives.

BRATIANO DENIES MOVE FOR REPUBLIC

"The queen is too noble a woman," he remarked, "to attempt to upset the existing dynastic order."

"Are you convinced the present Regency can last twelve years?" the correspondent asked. "Sixty-three years," Bratiano replied, "who has not the office of Premier twelve times."

"Yes, I am sure all attempts to upset the Regency will fail," he replied.

Company, eventually rising to be head of the firm, which was reorganized under the name of G. S. Campbell & Co. The firm holds the agencies of several steamship lines, notably the Red Cross Line of steamships operating between New York, Halifax and St. John's, Nfld., and also operates a fleet of towboats.

Mr. Campbell's capacity for business and his good judgment brought him into demand in other business circles. He was also a director of the Bank of Nova Scotia, and later its president. He was also a director of the Eastern Trust Company, a director of the Nova Scotia Building Society and president of the Halifax and Casco Steamship Company. He was chairman of the board of governors of Dalhousie University.

In 1887 Mr. Campbell married Miss Helen Kennedy of Edinburgh, member of a family internationally famous in musical circles. Their only son, Ian, George Campbell, was killed in action in Europe during the World War.

Mr. Campbell was greatly interested in education and gave freely of his time and money in that connection. In recognition of his public service and interest in education he was given the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws by Dalhousie University.

G. WASHINGTON'S HOBBIES DESCRIBED IN BOOK JUST OUT

ington's life as a country gentleman after marrying Martha Custis, and as a member of the Virginia house of Burgesses.

"He took his political duties," says Mr. Hughes, "apparently as lightly as the average modern member of the lower house of a state Legislature. He said nothing in the assembly and spent his evening playing cards or attending the theatre."

LIVELY COMEDIES

In a chapter on this period entitled "High Life of Williamsburg," Mr. Hughes says, "Washington constantly patronized the playhouse, where the young ladies of the town witnessed comedies that would startle Broadway of the Twentieth Century and bring the police patrol wagons to the stage door for the players."

Entries in the diary in 1760 are quoted by Mr. Hughes as "pleasant glimpses of him cheerfully going his way." These include such items as bets on horse races, cards, wine, tickets to dances and "treating ladies."

PROBLEM OF DESERTERS

Mr. Hughes's pictures of the Continental Army, based on letters, diaries and other manuscripts, many of them in Washington's own hand, differs widely from the account in which he calls those "fair tales in schoolbooks." He quotes Washington as writing in 1777 that unless the people gave him aid in returning deserters, "we shall be obliged to detach one-half of the army to bring back the other."

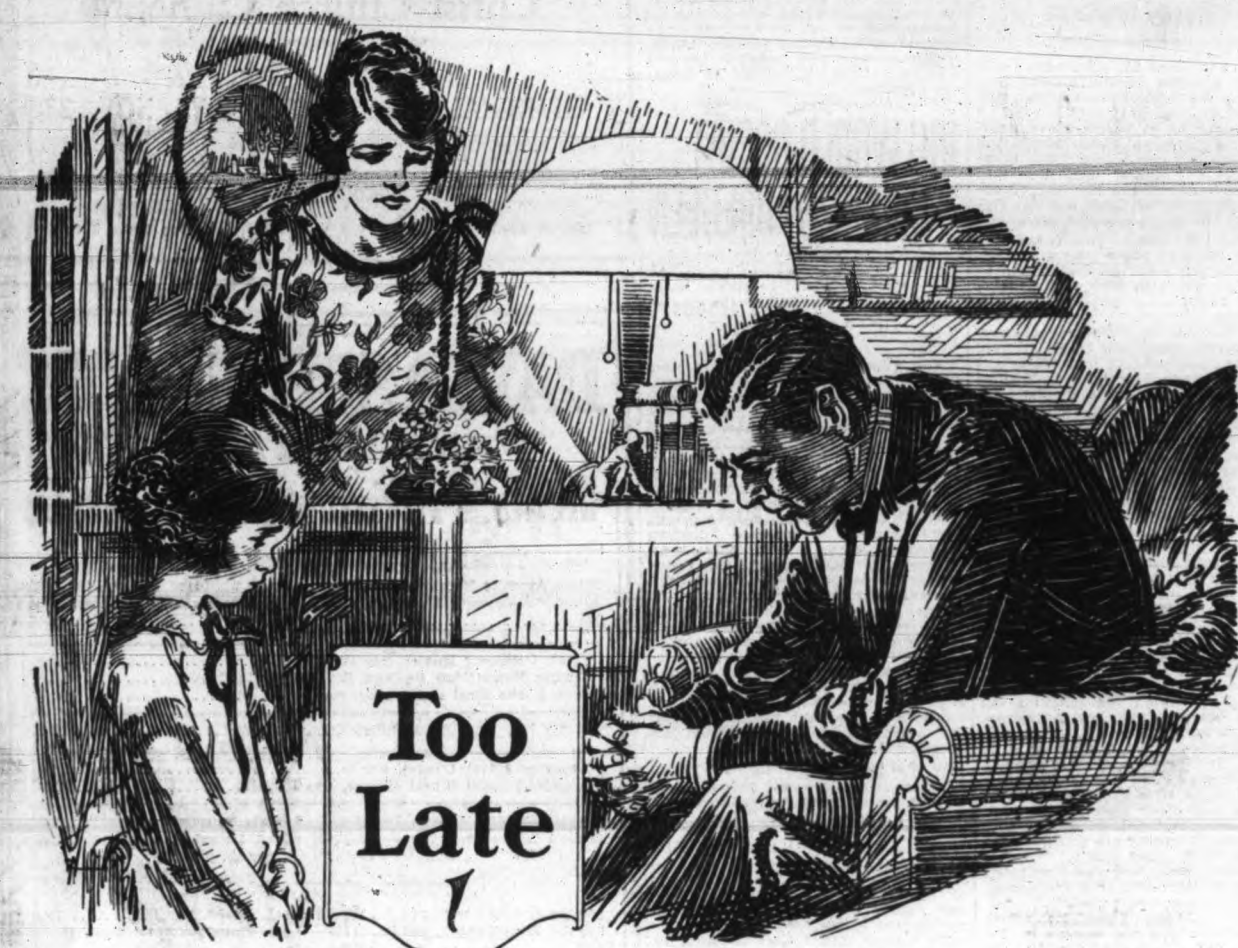

The Continental soldiers at the Battle of Long Island, Mr. Hughes describes as a "mixed force of cowards and heroes." Of the subsequent engagements at the place where the Grand Central Terminal now stands in Manhattan, Mr. Hughes writes that an "anguish of fear" made a judgment day of the whole American force, while the Hessian peasants ran after them, laughing and wondering that they should have been fetched so far to defend England from such cattle.

LEADER PARALYZED

Washington was so overcome by the cowardice of his men, the author says, that after lashing at them with his whip, striking a brigadier-general as a "private soldier," he suffered a "paralysis of the" within eighty yards of the enemy.

"It was there that it was left to his staff to save him," Mr. Hughes writes. "One of them rode up, caught his horse and led his horse away while Washington sat in his saddle, a dead man, breathing."

The next day the Americans were successful in a counter-attack and of this Mr. Hughes says, "Washington could hardly believe his eyes; his men were fighting and in the open they were driving the British back."

ELABORATE PLANS FOR TEMPLE FAIR

Circus, Dance Demonstrations, Baby Show Among Features Arranged

The fancy fair and circus which is being promoted by the Victoria City Temple promises to be a splendid success, according to reports received in the office of the church by A. L. Oakley, the secretary. To transform a military closed overnight into a fairland of beauty is a prodigious undertaking, but one which will be carried through without a hitch, according to the expectations of the management.

Cabaret Supper Dance at Crystal Garden Wednesday
The many hostesses who took advantage of the first of the weekly suppers at the Crystal Garden last Wednesday night will be pleased to hear that the arrangements for the cabaret supper and dance will be continued until further notice. Each week it is hoped to present several cabaret artists as an additional attraction and the first programme of this nature will be provided Wednesday evening.

The hundred odd patrons who attended the first supper dance last Wednesday expressed themselves as delighted with the arrangements. Tables were placed around the dance floor in cabaret form and the supper menu provided by the Crystal Garden caterer left nothing to be desired. Supper patrons are assured the exclusive use of the floor, there is no other dance in the building that evening.

The fortnightly card party under the auspices of the Royal Oak Women's Institute will be held on Wednesday November 23, at the home of Mrs. F. L. Nicholson, East Saanich Road, commencing at 8 o'clock. The institute birthday tea and social will be held on December 8 at Norfolk Lodge, Elk Lake, the home of Mrs. Clarence and Miss Oldfield, from 2 to 5 p.m.

Fairfield United Church—The Ladies' Aid of Fairfield United Church have completed their arrangements for a sale of work to be held in the church school-room on Wednesday from 2:30 to 6 p.m. The programme will be useful and beautiful articles for sale and afternoon tea will be served.

FORMAL EVENINGS
The fair will be opened on successive days as follows:
First day—His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Miss Mackenzie; second day—the Mayor and Mrs. Pendry; third day—Reginald Halliday and B. C. Nicholas.

The fair programme will start each day, beginning November 30, at 2:30 o'clock with music, opening at 3 p.m. each afternoon. Circus performances will be given each of the four evenings and Wednesday and Saturday matinees. On Thursday afternoon the special feature will be a baby show, for which sixty babies have already been entered for competition. Two baby specialists, with Dr. Price, the city health officer, will judge the babies. Valuable trophies are being offered as awards in six distinct classes, namely, two firsts under one year, two seconds under one year, two firsts and two seconds between one and two years; the best pair of twins and the blue ribbon baby of all the prize winners.

SANTA CLAUS
The special feature on the Friday afternoon will be the arrival of Santa Claus in a vehicle drawn by six ponies. Arrangements have been practically completed for the circus, which will be of high-grade calibre. Nothing else will be on the programme, but only such that will bring real joy to the hearts of children and adults alike. The artists who will perform are of high-grade character and headliners in their profession. The performing animals have been trained with care by trainers who love animals, and the animals enter into their performances with happiness.

Another feature of the fair programme much enjoyed on the last occasion of this kind will be the juvenile dancers, who will render eight separate programmes each afternoon and evening of the fair. The schools co-operating are under the direction of Miss Mona Jewell, Miss Violet Powkes, Miss Nellie Thacker and Mrs. L. H. Gaskill.

It is announced that a further addition to the programme of dancing will be from the Russian Ballet School of Dancing, in which a number of young ladies will interpret the Russian mode of the terpsichorean art. Prof. Rusanoff and Mrs. Wilson will direct this programme each evening from 9:30 p.m. to 11 p.m.

At the village of tents, which will be erected on the upper balcony of the Armories, and will be occupied by noted seers of the psychic and the rosiners from Romania. Much disappointment was expressed that at the last fair the promised Punch and Judy shows did not eventuate, the omission being undoubtedly caused through illness in the family of the director of this department. The Punch and Judy shows, however, at the forthcoming fair will go forward with a programme in the afternoon and two at night under the direction of W. E. Farmer.

The various organizations of the City Temple will have stalls on which will be displayed for sale fancy work, Christmas gifts, nuts and fruit, dolls and toys, turkeys and chickens, home cooking, gift ties and handkerchiefs, superfluities, and plain and fancy sewing, as well as aprons and baby-wear and myriads of other articles, tombolas and grab-bags.

WOMAN KILLED IN FALL FROM STORE

Wife of Wealthy Chicago Insurance Official Committed Suicide

Chicago, Nov. 21.—The body of the woman who fell to her death from the seventh floor inside balcony of the Marshall Field Company's store Saturday was yesterday identified as that of Mrs. Sadie Curran, wife of a wealthy official of the Equitable Insurance Society.

Mrs. Curran said she knew of no reason why she should have wanted to commit suicide.

"She was subject to frequent fainting spells and I believe she must have become dizzy and when she glanced over the railing fainted and fell," he said.

Mrs. Curran's body struck and seriously injured a saleswoman, and slightly injured Kenneth Crowell, University of Wisconsin student.

ERMINE-CAD GIRL GUIDES DETECTIVES

Unwittingly Leads to Burglar Haunt; Battle Follows

New York, Nov. 21.—A girl in ermine, who unwittingly guided detectives to a two-story apartment house where a battle was staged in a room lighted only by the blazing guns of two detectives and a burglar suspect, early yesterday brought about the arrest of herself, a girl pal and her reputed sweetheart and the recovery of $5,000 in loot of furs, clothing and silver.

At the end of the gun battle the detectives switched on the lights and found Edward McLaughlin, twenty-eight, alleged Chicago gangster, behind a furniture barricade which had been riddled by bullets on their way to make in the man's head and body. The man was taken to hospital critically wounded and charged with burglary and assault.

A girl who said she was Gertrude Smith, nineteen, dance hall hostess, who police said occupied the apartment with McLaughlin and Esther Oleksa, sixteen, Harlem, were arrested on charges of burglary. Later the police arrested James O'Connor, twenty-four, charged with burglary in connection with activities of the group.

Detectives Edward Schnitzler and Francis Hogan, whose attention was attracted to the girl as she walked along Broadway clad in an ermine coat and carrying an expensive beaded bag, were slightly wounded as they shot it out with McLaughlin.

Fellowship Club.—The Fellowship Club held their monthly tea and entertainment in two wards of aged and infirm patients in the Jubilee Hospital Wednesday afternoon. A goodly number of members were present to attend to the wants of the patients, and Mrs. Faanthorpe and Mrs. Holmes contributed duets and songs. It has been decided to hold a silver tea and card party in the forum room, 717 Pandora Avenue, Tuesday afternoon and evening with little girls in dances and recitation, also others in music and song, and prizes for the best hundred game in the evening. This being the last silver tea for this year, the proceeds are for Christmas cheer for these two wards.

Mothers' Union.—As the annual meeting of the Mothers' Union takes place early in January all nominations must be in the hands of the secretary, Mrs. W. Llewellyn Thomas, before December 1.

Held Successful Bazaar.—Lodge Princess Alexandra No. 18 Daughters and Maids of England held its annual bazaar in the S.O.E. Hall on Thursday, November 17. Mrs. J. C. Pendry opened the sale at 2:30 o'clock and little Virginia Norris presented her with a bouquet and also presented W. P. Sister C. Smith with one. After the opening ceremony Mrs. Pendry with the W.P. Sister D. W. P. Sister Harrison inspected the various stalls making several purchases and remaining to afternoon tea. The stallholders were: Mrs. Douglas Hume, Mr. and Mrs. Warder, post office, Mesdames Silk, Wyatt, Read and Shirley Smith; fancy needlework, Mesdames Bridges and Gosselin; candies, Mrs. Nell; hats, Mesdames Swan, Hatcher and L. Bridges; brah tub, Mrs. Gorton; miscellaneous, Mesdames Ware and Cleasby; Mesdames Norris and Adams with a bevy of ladies served afternoon tea. Mrs. Sherrington had charge of the drawings, the luncheon set being won by Mrs. Watson. The doll has yet to be drawn for. The bazaar was a wonderful success, reaping a good benefit for the order. Ball conveners asked to meet at Mrs. Gosselin's, 508 Oswego Street, on Thursday, at 2:30 o'clock.

MRS. WATSON HAS FINE PROGRAMME

Popular Contralto to Give Recital Friday at Fairfield

Great interest is being manifested in the concert-recital to be given on Friday evening at the Fairfield Hotel by Mrs. Watson, Victoria's popular contralto, and Miss Dorothy Morton, a talented young pianist of Victoria, and Mrs. M. Matthews as accompanist. A varied programme of songs, recitals and piano pieces has been arranged, consisting of four groups of songs. Yielding to popular desire a group of Scotch songs will be added.

A number of prominent citizens have written, expressing their pleasure that Mrs. Watson is giving the recital, for she has long been a favorite of the city and many calls to assist the various churches and other public bodies, in choir, concert and social functions.

Mrs. Watson possesses rich, resonant voice, and her sense of rhythm is an outstanding feature of her vocal efforts, while her powers of interpretation mark her as an artist of high mind as well as of voice. Her fingers are firm in the clear conception of the message and meaning of the composition in regard to both words and music.

Miss Dorothy Morton will also be a great attraction. A brilliant young pianist, she will give a number of selections which have not been previously given in the city.

The recital, which is being sponsored by the Men's Association of the Fairfield Hotel, will be given in the Fairfield United Church on Friday at 8:15 p.m.

The other side against the mayor will be taken by Robert Macfarlane, brilliant speaker and deep student of social questions.

Old-time musical comedy and light opera favorites will be given on the N.B.C. Coast network programme between 8 and 9 o'clock, preceding the debate.

ERMINE-CAD GIRL GUIDES DETECTIVES

Unwittingly Leads to Burglar Haunt; Battle Follows

New York, Nov. 21.—A girl in ermine, who unwittingly guided detectives to a two-story apartment house where a battle was staged in a room lighted only by the blazing guns of two detectives and a burglar suspect, early yesterday brought about the arrest of herself, a girl pal and her reputed sweetheart and the recovery of $5,000 in loot of furs, clothing and silver.

At the end of the gun battle the detectives switched on the lights and found Edward McLaughlin, twenty-eight, alleged Chicago gangster, behind a furniture barricade which had been riddled by bullets on their way to make in the man's head and body. The man was taken to hospital critically wounded and charged with burglary and assault.

A girl who said she was Gertrude Smith, nineteen, dance hall hostess, who police said occupied the apartment with McLaughlin and Esther Oleksa, sixteen, Harlem, were arrested on charges of burglary. Later the police arrested James O'Connor, twenty-four, charged with burglary in connection with activities of the group.

Detectives Edward Schnitzler and Francis Hogan, whose attention was attracted to the girl as she walked along Broadway clad in an ermine coat and carrying an expensive beaded bag, were slightly wounded as they shot it out with McLaughlin.

ALL-CANADIAN FIRM'S GROWTH

D'Alaird Co. Opens Twenty-two Stores in Twelve Years

"Our business shows an increase of forty per cent. over this time last year, and we confidently expect that this record will be maintained," said A. T. Parkes, sales manager of the D'Alaird Manufacturing Company, who is in the city to-day.

"Our company," said Mr. Parkes this morning, "is proud of its history, as it demonstrates the possibilities of Canadian industry. It commenced twelve years ago, with a capital of $500, and in a store no larger than the average fair-sized living-room. Everything sold was made in the basement. Its growth has been phenomenal and to-day we have a factory engaging about 300 operators throughout the year, and twenty-two stores all in Canada."

Facing the demands of increased business we have, during the last twelve months, opened new branches in Montreal, Toronto and Winnipeg, and have planned for further expansion in the near future. Our business to-day is in dress, lingerie and blouse. Every article sold is made right in our own factory, proving that Canadian-made merchandise can stand the test of competition with any outside market.

"We believe in, and practice the principle of giving a complete satisfaction to our clients, and I am firmly of the opinion that where the principles of refunding or exchanging on a same basis, the merchant never loses in the end."

LADIES' SWIMMING SESSION
To meet a popular demand each Monday morning from 10 to 1 o'clock the Crystal Garden pool will be reserved for ladies only. It is hoped that as many ladies as possible will take advantage of the opportunity to swim in privacy and thereby enable the management to make it a weekly privilege.

YOUR BABY AND MINE
By MRS. MARY ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children, and stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

HAS DIFFICULTY WITH AMMONIACAL CONDITION
Mrs. M. E. W. writes:
"I want your opinion on a vexing problem. My seven months old baby has such strong ammonia smelt to urine that it leaves her scalded every morning. Her bottle consists of whole raw milk, four times daily. No orange juice, but I give her prunes. Would you advise lime water for this?"

ANSWER
When this condition is present it usually indicates something that is not quite right in the formula. In your case I believe thirty-two ounces of raw milk, undiluted, is too strong for the baby. Six ounces of boiled milk and two of boiled water and one or two teaspoons of sugar would make a generally better formula for the average seven months old baby.

Orange juice and vegetable soup are both useful in counteracting this condition. Add these to the diet (they belong there anyway), and this information is contained in my feeding leaflet, which may be had for only a stamped and self-addressed envelope. Lime water helps break up the curd and is an anti-acid. It is true, but boiling the milk also breaks up the curd and orange juice and vegetable soup are natural, and therefore better, aids.

SLEEPING ON STOMACH NOT HARMFUL
Mrs. A. L. B. writes:
"I give my eight months old boy, thirty-eight ounces of milk, ten of water and three tablespoons of maltose in five bottles. He also has cereal, juice, cod liver oil, broth and zwieback."

"He wakens at night, cries once or twice, and then goes off to sleep. Sometimes he whines and groans. Why is this? He always sleeps on his stomach. Is that harmful?"

ANSWER
Thirty-eight ounces of milk is more than any baby, or child needs in one day. Thirty-two ounces is the maximum amount. You are evidently over-feeding him and his discomfort causes him to waken at night. Try the beneficial effects of four feedings a day and re-arrange his present diet by the standard test in the leaflet this department offers. It is possible all his foods may be given in excessive amounts.

Perhaps you play with him too violently at bedtime. I have pointed out the obvious reasons, indicated by his diet. There may be other causes, of course.

Sleeping on the stomach is not at all harmful. Some doctors contend it is the natural attitude. At least it is natural for your baby.

CERTIFIED MILK
Mrs. H. E. writes:
"Certified milk is the best milk one can buy. Doctors advise it because the best is naturally the safest to use for infants."

(All mothers with child diet problems are urged to send a self-addressed and stamped envelope for the feeding and weaning leaflet.)

about 6.45 o'clock this morning. Capt.
Alvin O. Lustie is on vacation, having ward the end of last week.

The McKinley brought 172 passengers in all classes, the cabin list being thirty-nine. Five cabin passengers disembarked at this port and about thirty steerage.

Dr. F. M. Auld and Rev. J. D. Mac-Rae, two missionaries of the United Church of Canada were among those leaving the ship here. Dr. Auld is a resident of Nelson but will go through ing to his home later.

The BLUE CAR MYSTERY

By NATALIE SUMNER LINCOLN

"I dunno why, but yo' bettah hurry fo' she's real mad!" The sound of the bell ringing incessantly came through the open door of the pantry and reached Anna, causing her to hasten her return. The chauffeur stood in indecision for a brief second, then re-entered the garage. When he emerged he had discarded his overalls. As he passed Anna in the passageway a moment or so later on his way to Mrs.
Ruggles, he was answering the telephone.

"Yo' want to speak to Miss Whitney?"
he heard her say. "Wait a minute—Mose, where'd Miss Ruggles go after she left the yard?"

"To the Cathedral for the afternoon services," he responded, and he heard Anna repeating the information into the transmitter of the telephone as he went up the staircase.

"Mrs. Ruggles propped up on pillows on her couch, looked the role of an interesting invalid and when Mose entered, in answer to her summons, she was wearing an open bottle of smelling salts gently to and fro.

"Good afternoon, Mose," she exclaimed graciously, and the chauffeur bowed stiffly as he came further into the room. "You have rendered your customary weekly expense account."

"I have it here, madam," Mose drew out a paper and placed it in her extended hand. Mrs. Ruggles ran her eyes down the list, entirely legible in its neat penmanship.

"The items are somewhat large," she commented, especially as the car has not been used to any great extent this week."

"Some of the bills are for gas consumed before Christmas," he pointed out. "I bought it myself."

"Ah? And your new chauffeur's uniform?"

Mose met her swift penetrating look with unmoved countenance.

FILMED RUINS OF YOKOHAMA

Pathe News Photographer
Had Tragic Part in Great Disaster

Filming an earthquake which thundered tiles and bricks about his ears, and left half his native city in desolation was the bitter experience of R. E.
Saeki, Japanese news photographer for Pathe News, who arrived here to-day on board the Ss. President McKinley.

Mr. Saeki has taken thousands of feet of news film of Japan, shown on this continent, and regards his work as that of a missionary, interpreting the daily life of his people to those in the western half of the world. He is now bound for the New York headquarters of Pathe News to attend a conference at which the work for the next two years will be mapped out.

Through the filming of the earthquake was the big moment in his life, and fraught with personal loss. Mr.
Saeki in the last few years had been able, through his camera, to show another picture, the reconstruction of his native land, the rising of great cities from ruins and the indomitable courage of his race in clearing away the wreckage of a national disaster for the steady recovery that marks the last stage in the earthquake disaster.

Japan is taking to western film dramas, and is anxious to set her art before the world by the same medium, states Mr. Saeki, in telling of the great interest taken in picture production in the Far East.

Railway Earnings Showing Decrease

New York, Nov. 21.—Despite the attainment of the greatest operating efficiency on record, railroads expect a decrease to earnings this year in comparison with 1926. It was announced at the annual meeting of the American Railway Association.

Inability of the roads to reduce expenses in the same ratio as the falling revenues was held responsible by the Bureau of Railway Economics for the expected decrease. Rising wages and falling volume of both freight and passenger traffic were cited as factors which maintained expenses at the 1926 level.

Chic Little French Girl Is Leading Lady In Big Outdoor Story Of North

Renee Adoree, One-time Circus Performer in France and War-time Entertainer Overseas, One of Universal's Artists at Capitol

Charming, piquante and chic Renee Adoree, the lovely French girl who is the star of Universal's "Back to God's Country," starting to-day at the Capitol Theatre, has caused a tremor in many a heart.

Miss Adoree was born in Lille, France, and came to the United States just seven years ago to appear on the New York stage. Of course her colorful background and her physical beauty, combined with a natural inherited acting ability immediately had motion picture producers angling for her services.

So, after appearing in New York in several productions, "Oh, You Uncle Tommy" and "Sonny," she deserted the stage where her charming French accent intrigued a large following of fans.

Miss Adoree has never lost her accent and it is one of her characteristics which makes her such an interesting conversationalist. To her intimates she tells many romantic little stories about her life in France and Belgium with a traveling circus and as an entertainer during the war.

On the stage at the Capitol Theatre this week the management is offering two exceptionally diversified and entertaining acts of vaudeville.

The Georgian Singers and Players are a talented aggregation of artists; and the Gibson Sisters are a talented comedy dance team. In a specialty programme of terpsichorean antics. The orchestral specialty will be "Honolulu Moon," played by the concert orchestra under the baton of Al Prescott.

Average Woman Uses More Paint Than Film Stars

Street Scenes in "See You in Jail" Prove Case in Point

The average woman uses more make-up for the street than a film actress before the camera.

This astonishing fact was disclosed when street scenes were taken by Director Joseph Henabery for "See You in Jail," featuring Jack Mulhall, which is the attraction at the Playhouse Theatre all this week.

Several ladies were requested to work as "atmosphere," which they graciously consented to do. But their makeup had to be toned down before they could be "shot" for motion pictures!

Alice Day who plays opposite Mulhall wore the necessary make-up and this was the model for the others. With the aid of George Folsey, chief cinematographer, Henabery remedied the defects by proper blending and by moving the rouge which was so heavy in most cases that it would have photographed black.

Ray Ro-jett produced this picture for First National and it is said to be one of the funniest comedy-dramas that has been offered for a long time.

NINA MORGANA'S ONE UNSUCCESSFUL ROLE

Metropolitan Opera Soprano Too Busy to Become Prima Donna

There is only one role in which Nina Morgana, soprano of the Metropolitan Opera Company, who appears here on November 29 at the Royal Victoria Theatre, is unsuccessful, the role of prima donna. So long as the house is dark and she is behind the footlights, Miss Morgana is in character. She is that unusual combination, a singer who is also an actress.

The critics speak of the simplicity of her Mirella in "Carmen," the coquetry of her Nedda in "Pagliacci," the vivacity and Spanish charm of her Rosina in "Il Barbiere di Siviglia." But after the applause has died away and the curtain has gone down for the last time, it is hard to believe that the calm little person chatting gaily in her dressing room of everything but herself was the heroine of the evening. She is young, slim, pretty, modest—in fact, everything a prima donna is not.

"I hope I'm not a great disappointment," laughed Miss Morgana, when asked how she managed to avoid becoming a prima donna. "I'd love to live up to that legendary role, but to tell the truth, I've never had the time to study it. Singing, you know, is a serious business involving regular routine and hard work. I often wonder how artists who take their careers seriously manage to find time for pet monkeys, milk baths, before curtain tantrums, jewel robberies and temper thinly disguised as temperament. Perhaps when I have reached the goal of all my ambitions I shall have breathing space in which to develop into a story-book singer. But I doubt it. Caruso used to say that, though it was not easy to climb the ladder of success, at least you traveled on two feet. But once you had gained the top it seemed as though you had only one toe on which to balance yourself. Keeping the position was a hundred times more work than achieving it. And so I'll probably never have the

College Life In Big Institutions Gives Romantic Film Scenes

Story Which Truthfully Depicts Days of University Students at Work and at Play Now Showing at Dominion Theatre for Week; Tales of Campus at Pomona Told

Millions who have often heard of class rushes, fraternity and sorority initiations, and track and field meets which loom importantly in college life, but which have never been witnessed by the average citizen, except college students and inhabitants of college towns, are going to learn much of the antics of collegiate ones in Marion Davies' "The Fair Co-ed," now at the Dominion Theatre.

Miss Davies has included all these events in her new starring production which was actually filmed at Pomona College, Claremont, Cal. She had the assistance of the college faculty, hundreds of members of the student body, as well as the physical instructors.

Every exterior scene of the picture was filmed against the actual college backgrounds from the buildings and campus to the drug stores and little cafes frequented by the boys and girls after higher education.

The whole town turned out to see the filming of the pyjama parade—just as it always turns out to see that event when the students stage it for their own benefit when no motion picture cameras are present. Students and motion picture people worked from the minute darkness settled over the campus until the sun came up to spoil the silhouette effect sought for the screen.

To make the scenes more effective the University of California, Southern Branch, and the University of Southern California were called upon to furnish students—and ideas—for the making of these scenes. Hundreds of professional film extras, college types, were intermingled with the students to assist them in taking film direction with more ease.

The bonfire scene was the greatest ever staged on a college campus because the material for the fire was furnished by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studio in far greater quantities than college students could have collected.

ABLE SINGERS

"The Four Playmates," a musical act of more than usual interest will be heard on the Dominion stage this week. "The Four Playmates," as they are named, are a team of novelty comedy and harmony singers who have just completed a very successful fourteen months' tour of Southern California. They had the distinction of starring in the prologues to "The Freshman," "The Iron Horse," "Behind the Front" and other big presentations. They are acclaimed one of the best and most entertaining quartets on the Pacific Coast. The personnel of the quartet includes Gardner L. Lung, tenor; Ed Carson, tenor; Evert Dersaux, baritone; and Kyle Head, basso. They will appear every matinee and twice nightly.

OLD ENGLISH SONGS ILLUSTRATE PAPER

Miss Mary Hamilton and Mrs. Jameson's Pupils in Programme

The studio of Mary McCoy Jameson, 1001 Foul Bay Road, was the rendezvous of her students on Friday evening, who gave their second recital of the Winter series. The songs were illustrative of the work of English composers, and supplemented an excellent paper by Miss Mary N. Hamilton of Victoria High School, entitled "English Song Up to Purcell."

Miss Hamilton traced the development of English song from the time of the Jutes, Angles and Saxons up to the "Great Purcell," whose influence on musical form in succeeding generations has been inestimable. The bard of ancient times, Beowulf, A.D. 440, the monks of the monastery, Caedmon, seventh century, the roysters in the tavern, the singing dancers on the green, and at the "Spring Festivals," the ballad singers, the kings and courtiers, all contributed their part to the nation's expression in song.

With the Elizabethan period, came the birth of the "Art Song," which expresses emotion and describes some phase of nature more often than it tells a story. One of the earliest "art songs," "Have You Seen But a Whyte Lillie Graw?" was taken by Ben Jonson for use in one of his plays.

Reference was made to the outstanding composers in each century, of whom the names of two remain in the mind, Thomas Morley, the first known composer of English songs, and the great Henry Lawes, whose name is always associated with the "Masque." Reference was also made to the songs of Shakespeare, many of whose lyrics have had such an appeal that the great composers of succeeding centuries have set them to music.

The programme follows: "Barbara Allan" (English version), Ada Simpson; "Have You Seen But a Whyte Lillie Graw?" Clementine Rich; "O Willow, Willow," Mrs. Jameson; "Nymphs and Shepherds" (H. Purcell), Isabel Crawford; "Passing By" (Edward Purcell), Lola Maxwell; "Shepherd, Thy Demeanour Vary," Grace Beckwith.

The Shakespearean songs by composers of more recent date included: "Orpheus With His Lute" (Sullivan), Mrs. Duncan McTavish; "She Never Told Her Love" (Haydn), Mrs. Patterson; "Big Me Discourse" (Bishop), Isabel Crawford.

Mrs. Jameson sang several of the old "cries," those primitive methods of salesmanship, long employed and still in vogue in many cities of Europe. These were quaint and charmingly sung: "Milk Below," "Matches!" "Primroses!" and "Ballad Monger's Song."

The accompanists were Miss Viola Johnson, Miss L. A. de W. Moore and Mrs. Jameson. After conversation and group singing, supper was served. Mrs. Jameson, Mrs. D. D. McTavish and Miss Lola Maxwell being the hostesses.

Basel Phelps has returned home for the Winter months from Thurston Bay.

where he has been employed by the Forestry Department.

Will Hawkes has returned from the prairies and is at present a guest of Basil Phelps.

The meeting of the Parent-teacher Association which was scheduled for last Tuesday night was postponed for a week owing to the weather.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry arrived from Victoria recently to spend the next few months with Mr. McGregor Sr. at Browning Harbor.

Mr. and Mrs. MacNeil came home recently from River's Inlet, where they had been fishing.

A successful and enjoyable business and social meeting was held in Hope Bay Hall Wednesday evening, when Hon. T. D. Pattullo, Minister of Lands, Mr. B. Jackson, K.C., and C. H. O'Halloran addressed an interested gathering. At the conclusion of the speeches a social time was enjoyed, including dancing and the serving of refreshments by the ladies.

KEARNS LOSES SUIT AGAINST DEMPSEY

Kearns's Lawyer Makes Accusation and Liard Calls Him a "Liar"

Newark, N.J., Nov. 21.—Plaintiff's charges of attempted tampering with Justice on the part of Jack Dempsey and Tex Rickard brought an end to Jack Kearns' $350,000 suit against Dempsey to-day.

Both sides agreed to ending the case by a voluntary nonsuit after Judge Runyon said the only alternative would be a mistrial.

Just before Judge Runyon issued his ultimatum, the court was thrown into an uproar by George J. Rickard, who so resented a remark of Kearns' counsel that the promoter had boasted having the case "in the bag" that he called the lawyer a "contemptible liar" in open court.

All the charges of "influence" were made by Arthur Sager, chief counsel for Kearns, who seeks damages on a contract made when he was the former champion's manager. Sager complained about a three-day adjournment last week, granted because Arthur "Dempsey" was "chief counsel," that said he was sick.

He charged Dempsey with faking sickness so that Dempsey might have time to stop by the state capitol building, where he was the Wisconsin director of the National Association of State Librarians and is now chairman of the Library Extension Commission of the A.L.A. Mr. Lester was in charge of the survey conducted in 1925 and 1926 of all public library services throughout the United States.

During the years 1908 to 1913 Mr. Lester was on the staff of the legislative reference department of the Indiana State Library and head of the legislative reference section of the New York State Library. Since 1920 he has been secretary of the Wisconsin State Library Commission. During the World War he was the Wisconsin director of the Library Extension Commission of the A.L.A. Mr. Lester was in charge of the survey conducted in 1925 and 1926 of all public library services throughout the United States.

Stage All Set For Minstrel Show at Royal To-night

The elder children of the Protestant Orphanage will be the guests to-night of the Victoria Kiwanis Club at the first performance of the Kiwanis Minstrels at the Royal Victoria Theatre.

All those who have purchased tickets for either of the three performances but have not yet exchanged these for reserved seats at the box office, are requested to do so immediately, in order to prevent over selling.

The full dress rehearsal on Saturday night gave every indication that the show will be a great success. The second act depicting the company of Janitors in the front line trenches is one of the most impressive and spectacular scenes it would be possible to imagine. The lighting effects, coupled with the realistic representation of shell fire gives a most natural touch to the act.

VICTORIA'S CHANCE TO BECOME CENTRE OF TEXTILE TRADE

Ald. H. C. Holmes Tells Gyro Club of His Belief of Great Future For New Industry

"With Mr. Moore out here and not too much interference from governments, either municipal, provincial, or federal, I am quite satisfied that within a few years Victoria will become the textile centre of Canada," declared Alderman H. Cuthbert Holmes, chairman of the industrial committee of the City Council, in an address at the Gyro Club to-day on the "Worsted Mill."

Alderman Holmes painted a vivid picture for the Gyros and believed that the aid being extended in the establishment of industries here would result in this city growing and developing into a metropolis, the population of which would run into six figures. The worsted mill, in his opinion, was one of the soundest enterprises that the citizens could back.

Alderman Holmes reviewed the steps taken to get John Moore here and told of the details of the plan which had been worked out and which had proved acceptable to the parties interested. The matter of financing was also explained.

The question of a market for the product of the worsted mill was one which engaged much consideration but Alderman Holmes said that every person in Canada purchased $10 worth of woollens a year, which set the Canadian purchases at $60,000,000.

"Victoria," stated Alderman Holmes, "is ideally situated for the worsted water and climate are right. The cold climate of the East is not suitable. Good labor also can be had here. On top of this Mr. Moore has never failed to make a success of the worsted mill he has started and he will be content to stay here for five years. Although the pay for labor is twice as high as in England it is a 12½ per cent duty on yarn imported into Canada and there is a saving of 3½ cents a pound on freight to Victoria, so that the mill here can work at a profit."

President Arthur Wills thanked Alderman Holmes for his lucid explanation of the new industry which is engaging the attention of Victorians at the present time and also added the satisfaction felt by members of the club in the great efforts exerted by Alderman Holmes in the interests of industrial expansion in Victoria.

Approximately 7,500 fans attended. The game was a typical early season exhibition of hockey. It was bitterly contested, and although strenuous at times, the contest was fairly clean. Wentworth, Chicago defence star, drew a major penalty for cross checking. Each team scored in the opening period. The Leafs outscored their opponents, two to one in the middle frame, making the score three to two entering the final session. In the last twenty minutes, the Black Hawks opened up with a determined offensive which forced the Leafs to display every bit of defensive strategy in their repertoire.

The teams were at mid-season form and the game was speedily and packed with thrills for the entire seventy minutes.

Right from the start Mickey Ion, the new referee from the West, showed he intended enforcing the rules. In the second period, Mantha and Dunc Munro came to blows. Both were banished for major penalties and fines of $15 imposed. Eleven thousand fans witnessed the struggle.

REF KICKED AND POLICE ARE CALLED AT SOCCER GAME

Lima, Peru, Nov. 21.—In a game marred by fighting during which the English referee, David Turner, was kicked by a member of the Uruguayan team and 100 policemen swarmed on the field to separate the battling players, Argentina's crack football team beat Uruguay 3 to 2.

The fight started in the second half, when Uruguay was penalized because the fullback had his hands on the ball.

Zanetti, Argentina's centre half-back, was taken to the hospital unconscious.

If Argentina wins their game against Peru they will become champions of South America.

Montreal, Nov. 21.—Regina Rough Riders won the Western Canadian rugby title on Saturday by defeating the University of British Columbia by 19-0.

Regina went out for points from the start of the game. The old boys of the prairie club tackled hard, showed occasional evidence of bad temper and were penalized twice for scragging. Milne and Johnny Currie repeatedly clashed and almost came to blows.

Regina worked some beautiful shiftings, cross runs and line bucks. At times they marched down the field for gains in a relentless series of movements that Varsity could not cope with. In the third quarter they moved along for a touchdown in a series of scrimmages, like a battering ram.

Religion First Then Loyalty Says Tunney

Heavyweight Champion Discusses His Philosophies of Life and Thinks Every Boy Should Aspire to Home of His Own, But Excuses Himself; Dempsey Goes "On the Air" and Advises All Boys to Take Up the "Art of Self-defence"

Washington, Nov. 21.—Religion is the highest and all-encompassing ideal of Gene Tunney, he said in discussing his philosophies of life. Second in his scale of values came loyalty to be followed in order by devotion to duty, friendship and health.

Although womanhood plays no direct part in Tunney's ideals, he thinks that motherhood plays one of the greatest and most beautiful parts in life and that "every able-bodied, wholesome-minded boy should aspire to a home of his own."

Asked if this opinion would apply to him personally, he remarked: "Just now I am so busy that there is no time to think about the distant future."

New York, Nov. 21.—Jack Dempsey faced the microphone last night with far more trepidation than he showed in the ring with Firpo, Carpenter or Tunney.

In a small, well-modulated voice containing the slightest trace of a nervous tremor, the former heavyweight champion of the world went on the air through WJZ and associated stations with a brief talk on the value of athletics to young people.

After urging boys to take up "the art of self-defence," and others to participate in some form of physical activity, Dempsey described his success in the ring to his "ability to withstand attack and come back after being hurt."

"When Firpo knocked me out of the ring," he said, "when Carpenter rocked me with a punch, it was only the ability gained through months and years of training that enabled me to pull through and win."

"Later when decisions were won over me, only the fitness acquired by careful and continuous training enabled me to stand up and fight to the finish."

As a result of their defeat the Thistles have not yet secured the First Division title as Victoria City won from the Canadian Scottish by default, and their match with the city next Saturday will be a deciding fixture. A victory for the youngsters in this match will give them the title while defeat will mean a tie between the two clubs, making a play-off necessary.

Equimault deserved their victory. Their forwards played well, while the half-backs and backs cleared splendidly and the whole team worked together. Boyd, Joe Watt and Tommy Smith were the outstanding players on the Equimault line-up. The Thistles showed up well in the last half, but their forwards failed to grasp the opportunities when they came. The youngsters made one mistake in playing their left wing in preference to the right. Sid Phillips, their outside right, is about the best man on the club, and he should be given all the play possible.

A GOLDEN CHANCE
For the first ten minutes the Thistles had the advantage and Bridges cleared three or four shots in quick succession. Tommy Watt had kicked a man into the Saanich goal, but the goalie blocked it. Another shot by Hetherington, who was working well together and breaking up all dangerous rushes. Smith drove a hot one at the Saanich net, but the goalie blocked it. The white horse, for half-time with no score.

Equimault pressed from the kick-off, and the first goal of the match came when John Watt drove in a low ground shot that beat Hetherington, although the goalie went at full length in the goal mouth in an effort to save. This counter-attack came after Wagland had centred nicely and the Saanich backs failed to clear.

FEELING HIGH
The referee had a little trouble at this stage in keeping the high feeling between Tom Watt and Joe Crowe from developing into a serious matter. The referee had a little trouble at this stage in keeping the high feeling between Tom Watt and Joe Crowe from developing into a serious matter.

Equimault continued on the offensive, and Tom Watt was fouled by Harper, when he had broke through. They were awarded a penalty. Wagland took the kick and on the first try, missed the goal, but through the fact that Hetherington rushed out of his goal before the ball was touched, the referee ruled the kick was to be taken again. Wagland made no mistake this time and Equimault were two goals up.

A LUCKY SAVE
For the next ten minutes Saanich had all the play and Bridges was fighting them out thick and fast from his post. Phillips drove in a couple of shots, but the Saanich goalie made good. On one occasion when he came out of his net to save and the ball was in the net.

Lomski Willing

New York, Nov. 21.—Prospects of a lightweight title bout between Jimmy Slattery, recognized champion of the national boxing association, and Leo Lomski of Aberdeen, Wash., in Madison Square Garden on December 12, developed to-day.

Matchmaker Jess McMahon said Lomski, who already is signed to meet Tommy Loughran, the titleholder of the Pennsylvania and New York authorities in the Garden on January 6, is agreeable to the Slattery match. McMahon said he expected to have a definite reply to-day from Slattery on the proposed bout.

Jordan River Pile Up Early Lead and Retain It All Way

Hillcrests Latest Victims of Fast Suburban Team; Final Score 42-20

Victoria College Boys Lose
But Girls Win; Onwegos
Nose Out Sword's Five

Piling up a big lead in the first half and showing the ability to hold that lead in the second canto gave the Jordan River team a win over the Hillcrests by a 42-20 score in the senior division of the City Basketball League at the "Y" Saturday night. The powermen's shooting was deadly, and their team play excellent. Tervo scored thirteen points for the Jordans.

Bob Whyte refereed, and the teams were:
Jordan River—Tervo 13, McKenzie 9, Willoughby, Boyd 10, Patt and Forbes 10.
Hillcrests—Wright 2, Bissell 2, Butler, Squires 8, Passmore 6, Darbyshire 2, and Davey.

CLOSE, HOT GAME
Victoria College were not quite good enough to win from High School. The powerful High School five gained a four-point lead by half-time and staved off the last half attack of the College to win by a 15-10 count. The game was fast, with both teams watching their checks like hawks.

Lucas refereed and the teams were:
High School—Cudlip 2, Forbes, Chapman 6, Hill 4, Macmurchie and Bissell 2.
Victoria College—MacQueen 4, Godwin 4, Thomson, Temple, Gilmour, Lyons and Foubister.

COLLEGE GIRLS WIN
The ladies of the Victoria College and Normal School met in a fast game, with the former taking the count by 6-2. For the winners Joan Fields had four points, while for the losers Myrtle Brown scored 2.

Bob Whyte refereed, and the teams were:
Victoria College—A. Code, L. Craig, J. J. Morris 2, L. Fisher, R. Fields 4, B. Penzer, J. Dawson and H. Copeland.
With the score 16-9 against them at half-time, Sword's Service Station crept to within one point of the Onwegos. Only to lose by three points, at the final count, 30-27. S. Skilling was in fine form, getting twelve, while S. Jackson, noted bike rider, scored 9.

J. Ross refereed and the teams were:

Many Pay Tribute of Tiger Flowers

Atlanta, Ga., Nov. 21.—The body of "Tiger" Flowers, former middleweight boxing champion, lay in state at his home here yesterday while thousands streamed by the bronze casket to pay tribute to the negro hero.

The funeral was held to-day from the municipal auditorium, tendered by city officials as the Butler Street African Methodist Church, of which the Tiger was an active deacon, would accommodate only a portion of the friends who wished to pay their respects.

Flowers died in New York Wednesday night after a minor operation.

Armour Wins Oregon Title by One Stroke Over Portland Star

Portland, Ore., Nov. 21.—Tommy Armour, of Washington, D.C., National open golf champion, on Saturday added another jewel to his crown of victories when he headed Dr. O. F. Willing, of Portland, to win the Oregon State open championship. Armour completed the tournament with a total of 289, one stroke over Dr. Willing, amateur, who finished with 290.

Neil Christian, Portland, was third for the Five C's proved too good for Victoria Wests, winning out 4-1. The former junior team played well and in the first half with the wind and slope in their favor scored three goals to the Wests' one. The Five C's added one more counter in the second period.

Starting with ten men the Wests were handicapped being forced to play a defensive game. The Five C's bombarded the greenheart's goal but Sid Sherratt in goal stopped everything for a time. Eden Quantinn broke through for the Five C's first goal beating Sherratt with a wicked drive. Carrying the ball up the field from the kick-off the Wests evened up on Robinson's splendid goal.

Five C's took up the attack and Eden Quantinn scored his second goal, banging the ball into the net during a scrimmage in the West's goal mouth. Just before half-time Hood worked his way through to beat Sherratt with a fast shot.

In the second half the only score came when Sutton netted the Five C's fourth counter. One of the features of this period was the saving of a penalty shot by Tuckwell, the Five C's goalie.

Saunders refereed and the teams were as follows:
Five C's—Tuckwell, Hood, White, F. Viggers, Ed. Viggers, Groves, McGlimpsey, Sutton, Eden Quantinn, Eric Quantinn and Moulton.
Victoria West—Sid Sherratt, Peden, Dunn, Passmore, Dryborough, Poshan, Jimmy Sherratt, Collins, Robinson, Butler and Mulcahy.

Results of the Junior and Juvenile soccer games played on Saturday were:
Junior League—
Bapcos won from Y.M.C.A. by default.
Juvenile League, Division III—
Five C's 1, Esquimalt 0.
Tillcum 2, Royal Oak 0.
Five C's 0, Saanich Rovers 0.

Winnipeg Organizes New Hockey League

Winnipeg, Nov. 21.—Winnipeg will have a new amateur hockey league this winter. It will be known as the "Big Four" comprising teams from the T. Eaton Company Limited, the Hudson's Bay Company, the Canadian Pacific Railway and the Canadian National Railway. It was organized Saturday with R. P. Marples as president. The season will open December 15.
There is little likelihood of Winnipeg having a senior amateur league this season and the "Big Four" will provide the major attraction for amateur hockey fans locally.

SEES BRIGHT FUTURE FOR MALAY STATES

Increased Rubber Planting One Result of Sales Limitation

An era of growing prosperity, increase in settlement and great productive activity is turning the Malay States to a prospect of a very bright future, according to Leland B. Howey, on furlough from the Standard Oil Company's office on the peninsula.

Mr. Howey, with his wife and family, are returning to the United States for a brief holiday on board the S. S. President McKinley.

Enormously increased acreage given to rubber plantations was one of the factors making for the renewed activity of the Malay States in the post-war period. The British control of the rubber production, while it saved the industry at the time, is now re-acting against the controllers, he believes, in that it is driving other countries into the plantation and production end of the business. Synthetic rubber tests in Germany were being watched with interest, and might affect the whole rubber situation.

Mr. and Mrs. Howey will spend six months at their home in Oregon before returning to the Malay States where Mr. Howey has been on service with the Standard Oil interests for two and a half years.

Sidney

Sidney, Nov. 21.—The weekly card party of the Sidney Social Club was held in Berquist's Hall on Wednesday evening, five hundred being played at five tables. The prize-winners were Miss Irene Frost, W. Hillier, R. N. McAuley and J. G. Jackson. At the conclusion of cards refreshments were served by Mrs. J. T. Harrison and Mrs. A. Critchley, after which a social half hour was spent. The next meeting will be on Wednesday, November 23, at "Shore Acres" for members of the club, and their friends, in response to the kind invitation of Mrs. S. K. Habeth. In addition to the regular prizes, special prizes will be awarded.

The regular monthly meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association was held in the schoolroom, Tuesday evening, there being a fair attendance. The president, Mrs. Gilman, occupied the chair and opened the meeting. The secretary read the minutes of the previous meeting which were adopted as read. It was decided that the parent-teachers give a Christmas tree, supper and entertainment for the Sidney School children in Mattheu's Hall on December 20, for which Mrs. C. C. Mousice was elected convener. The following conveners, Mrs. Gilman, Mrs. Williamson and Mrs. Shade were appointed in charge of the refreshment entertainment and decorating, each with a good supporting committee. Islands

MAYNE ISLAND

Mayne Island, Nov. 31.—The Guild of Handicrafts workshop was opened here on Saturday afternoon. On Wednesday next the guild is starting a course of twelve lessons in weaving. The instruction will be Mr. Eldridge of Victoria.

A most successful shower of household articles was held at the home of Mrs. Maude on Tuesday afternoon in order to help Mrs. Bellhouse of Galiano Island, who recently had all her belongings destroyed by fire. Friends brought a large number of most useful articles.

A considerable sum was realized here and on Galiano Island during armistice week, and was forwarded to the Poppy Day fund. Those responsible for the collection of the money were Mrs. West, Mrs. R. Hall and Miss Dishman of this island, and Mrs. Stewart of Galiano Island. The Rev. R. D. Porter officiated at the special Armistice Day service held here.

Mrs. D. Olsen of Los Angeles is staying with her father, Mr. Aitken.

SATURNIA ISLAND

Saturnia Island, Nov. 21.—Mrs. D. Macfadyen has been visiting Major and Mrs. W. Pender on South Pender Island.

Mrs. Stretton who has been in Victoria for some weeks, has returned home.

Mrs. Harold Payne of Sidney is visiting Mrs. Stretton.

Mrs. Higgs and grandchildren of South Pender Island have gone to Victoria.

J. O'Reilly of Victoria is staying for a few days on his farm on South Pender Island.

ROBBERY IN WINNIPEG

Winnipeg, Nov. 31.—Believed to be experts at safebreaking, burglars blew the safe in a local company's office Saturday night and escaped with $500 in cash. Police described it as a "neat job," no clues being left.

When you get that tired, lay-me-down-and-die feeling take 15 to 30 drops of Seign's Syrup in a glass of water. Does the trick and safely. You'll feel like new. (Advt.)
